COMPREHENSION

- 1 Some verses have been omitted from this chapter. Where should the following verses be inserted?
 - a) But those workmen said among themselves, This is he who will one day be the owner of the property; come, let us put him to death, and the heritage will be ours.
 - b) There were seven brothers: and the first took a wife, and at his death there were no offspring;
 - c) Because they all put in something out of what they had no need for; but she out of her need put in all she had, even all her living.
 - d) David himself gives him the name of Lord; and how then is he his son? And the common people gave ear to him gladly.
 - e) The second is this, Have love for your neighbour as for yourself. There is no other law greater than these.
 - f) And he sent another; and they put him to death: and a number of others, whipping some, and putting some to death.
 - g) Are we to give or not to give? But he, conscious of their false hearts, said to them, Why do you put me to the test? give me a penny, so that I may see it.

GRAMMAR

The future perfect simple tense is used to describe things which will be completed by a specific time in the future. It's formed by:

Will + have + past participle- e.g. I will have finished this chapter by six o'clock.

This tense is often used along with expressions of time, e.g. by the time, in five years' time, by six o'clock, by 2056.

The future continuous tense is used to describe something which will be in progress at a specified time in the future.

It's formed by: Will + be + -ing - e.g. In the Kingdom of God, people will not be marrying and giving in marriage. [Mark 12:25].
