Mark 14:1-25

- (1) It was now two days before the feast of the Passover and the unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes made designs how they might take him by deceit and put him to death:
- (2) But they said, Not while the feast is going on, for fear there may be trouble among the people.
- (3) And while he was in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, seated at table, there came a woman with a bottle of perfumed oil of great price; and when the bottle was broken she put the perfume on his head.
- (4) But some of them were angry among themselves, saying, For what purpose has this oil been wasted?
- (5) We might have got more than three hundred pence for it, and given the money to the poor. And they said things against her among themselves.
- (6) But Jesus said, Let her be; why are you troubling her? she has done a kind act to me.
- The poor you have ever with you, and whenever you have the desire you may do them good: but me you have not for ever.
- (8) She has done what she was able: she has put oil on my body to make it ready for its last resting-place.
- (9) And truly I say to you, Wherever the good news goes out through all the earth, what this woman has done will be talked of in memory of her.
- (10) And Judas Iscariot, who was one of the twelve, went away to the chief priests, so that he might give him up to them.
- (11) And hearing what he said, they were glad, and gave him their word to make him a payment of money. And he took thought how he might best give him up to them.
- (12) And on the first day of unleavened bread, when the Passover lamb is put to death, his disciples said to him, Where are

- we to go and make ready for you to take the Passover meal?
- And he sent two of his disciples, and said to them, Go into the town, and there will come to you a man with a vessel of water: go after him;
- And wherever he goes in, say to the owner of the house, The Master says, Where is my guest-room, where I may take the Passover with my disciples?
- (15) And he will take you up himself to a great room with a table and seats: there make ready for us.
- (16) And the disciples went out and came into the town, and saw that it was as he had said: and they made ready the Passover.
- (17) And when it was evening he came with the twelve.
- (18) And while they were seated taking food, Jesus said, Truly I say to you, One of you will be false to me, one who is taking food with me.
- (19) They were sad, and said to him one by one, Is it I?
- (20) And he said to them, It is one of the twelve, one who is putting his bread with me into the same plate.
- (21) The Son of man goes, even as the Writings say of him: but cursed is that man through whom the Son of man is given up! It would have been well for that man if he had never been given birth.
- (22) And while they were taking food, he took bread, and after blessing it, he gave the broken bread to them, and said, Take it: this is my body.
- (23) And he took a cup, and when he had given praise, he gave it to them: and they all had a drink from it.
- (24) And he said to them, This is my blood of the testament, which is given for men.
- (25) Truly I say to you, By the time I drink wine again, the Kingdom of God will have
