

Mark 6 : 49 - 56

(49) But they, when they saw him walking on the sea, took him for a spirit, and gave a loud cry:

(50) For they all saw him, and were troubled. But straight away he said to them, Take heart, it is I, have no fear.

(51) And he went to them into the boat, and the wind went down, and they were full of wonder in themselves;

(52) For it was not clear to them about the bread; but their hearts were hard.

(53) And when they had gone across, they came to Gennesaret, and got their boat to land.

(54) And when they had got out of the boat, the people quickly had news of him,

(55) And went running through all the country round about, and took on their beds those who were ill, to where it was said that he was.

(56) And wherever he went, into small towns, or great towns, or into the country, they took those who were ill into the market-places, requesting him that they might put their hands even on the edge of his robe: and all those who did so were made well.
