

Mark 8 : 28 - 38

disciples, saying, Who do men say that I am?

(28) And they made answer, John the Baptist; and others, Elijah; but others, One of the prophets.

(29) And he said to them, But who do you say I am? Peter said in answer, You are the Christ.

(30) And he put them under orders not to say this of him to anyone.

(31) And teaching them, he said that the Son of man would have to undergo much, and be hated by those in authority, and the chief priests, and the scribes, and be put to death, and after three days come back from the dead.

(32) And he said this openly. And Peter took him, and was protesting.

(33) But he, turning about, and seeing his disciples, said sharply to Peter, Get out of my way, Satan: for your mind is not on the things of God, but on the things of men.

(34) And turning to the mass of people with his disciples, he said to them, If any man has the desire to come after me, let him give up all other desires, and take up his cross and come after me.

(35) Whoever has a desire to keep his life, will have it taken from him; and whoever gives up his life because of me and the good news, will keep it.

(36) What profit has a man if he gets all the world with the loss of his life?

(37) And what would a man give in exchange for his life?

(38) Whoever has a feeling of shame because of me and my words in this false and evil generation, the Son of man will have a feeling of shame because of him, when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.
