CAMEROON

Brother Craig tells us:

We are delighted to announce the baptism of our new sister, AICHA, who lives in the forested region of eastern Cameroon. Our dedicated brother Wilfried travelled for 26 hours over 2 days (he estimates around 900kms) to baptize this ex Muslim who has accepted the Lord Jesus as her Saviour. He reports that it was a joyous occasion, although the baptism had to be carried out in secrecy as sister Aicha's family are all Muslims. We ask for your prayers for our new sister who is currently in isolation. She hopes soon to have a smart phone and has expressed interest in joining our Francophone WhatsApp group. We give thanks to our Heavenly Father for his grace.

You can see her holding the "What is the Gospel?" booklet in French, which brother Wilfried has been distributing.

CANADA

Jim Anne Barton have been advertising the Persian Bible app in Canada, and we're delighted to report the baptisms online of a Persian couple in Canada, ABBAS and his wife MARYAM, with brother Arash translating. It was a really happy time together online and they hope to attend the Canadian Zoom meetings which Jim Anne run. All so encouraging.

FRANCE

We spent a very happy time in France this week helping brother Romain baptize his sister AMELIE.

Not far away now lives brother Kevin and sister Daisy, baptized in Brazil in 2011 although Kevin is from France. Kevin attended our Carelinks Missionary Training program in Riga in 2013 and has kept in touch. He and his wife have opened a website clearly explaining the Truth, with lots of reasons why they reject Trinity and the common understanding of Satan. There is no greater joy than to see converts still "walking in truth" now 11 years later... and now with their two delightful children, living in a small village in the Dordogne. We had a wonderful time of fellowship together; and compared how we are now with the photo we took of ourselves together in Brazil 11 years ago. This is indeed the fellowship of the Spirit and we look forward to eternity together. They'd be very open to a visit from anyone in the area:

PRAYER POINTS

- For those recently baptized
- For work planned this week God willing in Latvia and Israel
- For our dear ones in Ukraine and Russia at this very frightening time for them

With love from your brothers and sisters of Carelinks
