APP

The Bible Companion app is the backbone of our outreach and also our pastoral follow up work with those baptized. You can get it from www.freebible.info if you don't have it. It offers a commentary on every verse of the Bible- tap the verse and you get the commentary. That commentary has been expanded significantly since the app was first launched in 2019. We have now compiled the updated version, coming to 7.5 million words of commentary, in PDF and .epub formats; for every book of the Bible, and also as six volumes of commentary. You can see it all at www.n-e-v.info or download as follows:

Volume 1: Genesis - Deuteronomy PDF .epub Word

Volume 2: Joshua - Esther PDF .epub Word

Volume 3: Job - Song of Solomon PDF .epub Word

Volume 4: Isaiah - Malachi PDF .epub Word

Volume 5: Matthew - Acts PDF .epub Word

UKRAINE

Last week we told you of how our dear brother Igor was grabbed by the Military from his home and taken direct to the front. He had a major heart attack last year and is an invalid, and is the sole carer for his one legged wife sister Nina. They live very far from much civilization and are subsistence farmers, and she continues to lament how few potatoes and other crops she can harvest alone. Igor has been set to work digging trenches and dugouts near the front, given little food, no heart medications and inadequate clothing. And no toiletries. He is exhausted each day after working. Here is a package of stuff sent to him, but we do ask your prayers for him and sister Nina.

As we go to press we had a message from Nina that she has spoken to Igor and he is crying, so upset and exhausted. Do pray for him, please.

This week we went out to a village vaguely near Lincoln to baptize some lovely young folks who encountered us online, KIERAN and his sister AMY and Kieran's friend JASON. It was wonderful to sit in Kieran's cottage and hear of his long journey to the Lord Jesus. Amy invited her work colleague, who took the videos and photos- a pretty powerful witness to her. It's just amazing how young British folks are responding to the Gospel, to Jesus, to the Bible... even if when it comes to church, they find the whole scene somewhat bewildering. Where they live is fenland, plenty of surface water on the flat, high water table landscape, but all difficult to get access to. Kieran drove us in his Landrover to a farm he works on where there is a canal with deep sidings that allow some depth of water to build up. We took a ladder so we could climb down into it... and it was really, really a lovely moment as three young people seriously gave themselves to Jesus as their Lord and Saviour and surrendered to the things of God's Kingdom.

And let's pray that Sarah, Amy's work colleague, will also come to baptism. We gave them all NEV Bibles and set them up to continue using the Bible Companion app for daily studies.

They plan on coming to our Carrotty Wood retreat weekend in Kent December 4-6, Lord willing. Do think of coming yourself. And we're open to donations at this stage to enable it to happen.

As we go to press, sister Amy contacted us to say that the day after the baptism, she took her young kids to see the place she was baptized. The day of the baptism, the water was dirty, and as you can hear in the video, during the baptism service we made the point that that represents the dirt of the sins of those three people being forgiven and washed away. When she returned to the spot the next day, the water was very clear, and she went in to show the children what she had done. A real acted parable of sin being washed away! Here are the pics she sent:
